Quick Hits:

The Hope College Flying Dutchmen finished the 2017-18 season with an overall record of 19-10 and a 10-4 slate in MIAA action, earning them a share of the conference title.

Senior guard Jason Beckman returns to the Dutchmen after leading the 2017-18 team in minutes per game (35.1), total points (645), and free throw percentage (91.4% - 149-163).

Also returning for the Dutchmen is sophomore center Preston Granger. In his first collegiate season, Granger pulled down 133 rebounds while averaging 9.8 points per game.

Hope will take on the Greenville University Panthers in the opening game of the North Park tournament.

After finalizing their 2017-18 season against CCIW co-champ Augustana College in the NCAA Tournament, the Panthers start their 2018-19 season with an 0-2 record.

Impact guard Johari Dix returns for his senior campaign after leading the Panthers with 533 points and 514 minutes of court time. In his two games played this season, Dix is averaging 18.5 points per game.

Senior guard Josias Parker also enters his final season, tallying 140 assists while swiping 63 passes in 2017-18.

North Park will play host to the Simpson College Storm on Friday night for the second set of tournament action.

The Storm suffered a tough season-opening loss to Bethany Lutheran, 100-103, but bounced back with a 92-86 win over Westminster (Mo.).

Junior guard Conor Riordan currently spearheads the Simpson offense with 51 total points and 7 three-pointers.

Tournament host, the North Park University Vikings, look to bounce back from a 68-82 loss against Lake Forest College in their season opener this past Tuesday.

The Vikings were led by forward Matt Szuba who scored 17 points and knocked down 4 three-pointers to open his second season for Coach Tom Slyder's 2018-19 squad.

Closely following Szuba, junior forward Veggie Tangen marked 15 points while shooting a perfect 4-4 from the charity stripe on Tuesday night.
